The Freedmen's Affairs in Tennessee,
Alabama and Arkansas.

Naw York, Oct. 6.—A Herald Washington special says: The Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau has madereports from Tennessee, Alabama and Arkansas, for the month of August, all of which continue to give highly encouraging accounts of the return of peace and tranquility to those States.—The Freedmen themselves are generally employed and industrious, and are gaining more confluence in the whites. Everything indicates a desire on the part of the people to welcome the day that will restore quiet and harmony to that section of country. Among certain classes the old antipathy to the Freedmen's Bureau still exists, and when disposed to resist the most distasteful requirements of the law. Many of them evince a decided dislike of any interference on the part of the officers of the Bureau. The Assistant Commissioner of the Bureau in the State of Alabama, reports that during the month of August, one hundred and ninety-one thousand, seven hundred and torty rations were issued to fifteen thousand and fifty-nine refugees, at a cost of thirty-four thousand, two hundred and his command who fell into the hands of the Candiates, obtained their release by concluding a convention with the lead-ers of the insurrection. PORTLAND, Me., Oct. 6.—A hearing sgainst chief Engineer Rogers, of the fire department, on a charge of incompetency has been going on for three evenings past before the Common Council—a petition of the citizens for his removal having been presented. After a full hearing and examination of witnesses, principally in regard to the great fire of July 4th, he was last night fully exonorated by a unnnimous vote of both branches. The evidence shows that it was managed as well as it could have been under the circumstances.

MEMPHIS, October 6.—Capt. Alonza Greenlan, who killed Johnny Taylor in a recent duel, attempted to commit suicide this morning by shooting him-self in the breast. The ball struck a rib and glanced round, lodging in the back, inflicting a serious, though not fatal wound. Remorse he says was the cause.

Louisville, Oct. 6.-Hon. Elijal Hoyse was to-day elected to Congress from the Third District of this State, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Hon. Mr. Grider. He defeated Colone Hawkins by a large majority.
